Direct disability discrimination is when someone is treated less favourably than others because of their disability. Example: An autistic student is excluded from a course trip because the education provider doesn't think they'll get the same benefit as other students.

Disability discrimination in further and higher education (GB)
Autism Discrimination The United Nations reports that discrimination against the autistic is the rule, not the exception. Discrimination isn't always about open prejudice or bigotry, but more often about a lack of understanding, acceptance or knowledge. These must change, and this is what Autism Citizen is here to do – to educate about autism.
