interesting story. Farai represents middle class male chauvinism, and that his story is one of unhappiness and illness makes for a narrative that is curious. Upon his immediate return Farai finds that his wife has become more and more involved in her church, and his children are distant.

Chairman of Fools is the fourth novel by Zimbabwean writer Shimmer Chinodya, whose previous book-length narrative (the 1989 war novel Harvest of Thorns) brought him international acclaim. Chairman of Fools resembles Harvest of Thorns in that it narrates a rite-of-passage experience which shapes the emergent adult masculinity of its hero.
